 has considered the statements of case and allocation questionnaires filed, and allocated the claim to the fast track.

IT IS ORDERED THAT

1. This matter be allocated to the Fast Track.
2. The claimant shall within 14 days of service of this order send to the defendant and to the Court:
 - a) A schedule setting out each charge repayment of which is sought showing the date, amount and reason given (if any) for that charge being made
 - b) Copies of any statement or other document relied upon as showing that each and every charge has been made
 - c) A statement of evidence of all matters relied upon as tending to show that the charges are irrecoverable as penalties or otherwise
 - d) Copies of decided cases and other legal material to be relied upon.
3. The defendant shall within 21 days thereafter file and serve a response to the claimants schedule stating in respect of each item claimed:
 - a) Pursuant to what contractual provision such charge was made, producing a copy of the contractual document relied upon

Notes:

- You and the other party, or parties, may agree to extend the time periods given in the directions except
 - where a rule, practice direction or court order requires a party to comply with a direction within a specified time and specifies the consequences of failing to comply;
 - where an extension of time will affect the date given for returning the pre-trial checklist or the date of the trial or trial period.
- If you do not comply with these directions, any other party to the claim will be entitled to apply to the court for an order that your statement of case (claim or defence) be struck out.
- Leaflets explaining more about what happens when your case is allocated to the fast track are available from the court office.

- b) Whether such charge is accepted to be a penalty, and if not why not
- c) If such charge is alleged to be a pre-estimate of the defendants loss incurred by the claimants actions (whether or not such action is treated as a breach of contract between the parties), all facts and matters intended to be relied upon as showing that such was a proper estimate of such loss and all evidence to be adduced at trial as to what the true costs of dealing with the matter was
- d) If such charge is not alleged to be a pre-estimate of the defendants loss incurred by the claimants actions then facts and matters intended to be relied upon showing the basis upon which the charge was calculated and all evidence to be adduced at trial as to show that the charge was fair and reasonable
- e) Any witness statements
- f) Copies of decided cases and other legal materials to be relied upon.

4. This matter be listed for directions hearing to be heard at [REDACTED] on Wednesday 15 August 2007 at 2.00 pm allowing 15 minutes.
